STANDARD: Written policy, procedure and practice require Community Supervision Agencies to have a written description and organizational chart that reflects the current structure of authority, responsibility, and accountability within the agency. These documents are reviewed at least annually, and are updated as needed.

DISCUSSION: A current organizational chart is necessary for providing a clear administrative picture. The chart should reflect the grouping of similar functions, the effective span of control, lines of authority, and an orderly channel of communication.

NOTE: The standards and procedures set forth herein are intended to establish operational guidelines for community supervision agencies and their employees/contractors and juveniles under supervision. They are not intended to establish state created liberty interests for community supervision agencies or their employees/contractors, or supervised juveniles, or an independent duty owed by the Juvenile Justice Authority to community supervision agencies, or their employees/contractors, supervised juveniles or third parties. This standard and procedure is not intended to establish or create new constitutional rights or to enlarge or expand upon existing constitutional rights or duties.
